Excerpt from Proceedings of the Governor and Council at Fort William: Respecting the Administration of Justice Amongst the Natives in Bengal We hope they will be read with that Indulgence, which we are humbly of Opinion is due to a Work of this Kind, undertaken on the plain Principles of Experience and common Observation, without the Advantages which an intimate Knowledge of the Theory of Law might have afforded us; We have endeavoured to adapt our Regulations to the Manners and Understandings of the People and Exigencies of the Country, adhering as closely as we were able, to their ancient Usages and Institutions. It will be still a Work of some Months we fear, before they can be thoroughly established throughout the Provinces, but we shall think Labours amply recompensed, if they meet with your Approbation, and are productive of the good Effects we had in View. In the Copy of our Proceedings, which accompanied our Letter of the 28th ultimo, we intimated our Intention of communicating to you our Sentiments in a future Address, upon the Subject of the Magistracy of this Province, which though an Appendage of the Nizamut, we considered not necessarily connected with the Proposition, which were then recommended to your Attention, and of too much Importance to be lightly, or only occasionally treated.
