There is a good beginning of benevolent institutions. Educationally it is a center. A BusinessCollege, a Roman Catholic College, the Branch State Normal School, and the University of Southern California are here. The school privileges, although in their infancy, are firstclass. The higher educational interests of the great southwest portion of the Union must as naturally gather here as do the commercial industries. It is only thirteen miles to the seaside watering-place of Santa Monica, and twentytwo to the port of Wilmington, with both of which it is connected by railroad. The city has electric lights, street cars, and a good water system. The valuation of the real and personal property is between nine and ten millions, and as this is based upon what the property would bring at a forced sale for cash, the real value is much...
