By Cyndie Shaffstall

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Glyphs: The Scribe is the second book in The Delegate series, a collection of independent novels written in first-person narrative by Cyndie Shaffstall, best selling author of Willows: The Creole. The Prophecies Wiraqucha, the creator god, loves and will not destroy the people and the empire he has created, and so he appoints others to watch over his creations while he continues his explorations of the heavens and the earth. After one hundred years, his appointed custodians must return to their home in the sky leaving the people of the empire without the daily presence of those they believe protect them. In accordance with this and other prophecies, and almost all at once, the Wira Empire loses their sun god, Inti, who succumbs to the ravages of the human form, as Wiraqucha plans to flood the village in order to protect it as a place of rest for his future visits. The Sun God Pascac, son of Inti, leads villagers to safety in Sacsayhuaman, the sanctuary overlooking Qusqu--the capital city built by the god of civilization, Manqu Qhapaq. Despite their...
