The Spirit That Is You Complete Three Story Book includes all three educational stories in The Spirit That Is You children s series. This set of books was created to bridge the gap between organized religion and spirituality. Using easy to understand stories, parent/child interactive questions and beautiful illustrations, this series educates children about their spiritual self and the energy that each one of us holds within our souls. Book One will help your child understand: * The basic meaning for being here on Earth * We all have an individual purpose and are here for a reason * We are never alone and always guided by those we love both here on earth and from the spirit world * Our soul never dies and continues even after our time on earth is complete * Practicing love creates growth Book Two will help your child understand: * Be kind to others * All living things are connected * The way you treat others changes how they treat you in return * Thinking positive thoughts will change your perception and enhance your personal experiences * Practicing sharing love and being kind creates soul growth Book Three will help your child understand: *The vibrational energy that is within everything *How to connect with their guidance *How emotions impact your spiritual connection *How to decipher the difference between intuition and regular human thought *Your soul continues beyond this world.
