Not illustrated. 1911 Excerpt: .the 7 P.m. closing hour for children under sixteen is extended to the entire State; the unlimited hours of work for persons sixteen or over are now restricted to the seven days preceding Dec. 25th; employees working after seven at night must be allowed twenty minutes for lunch between 5 P.m. and 7 P.m. Work on drill presses, metal or paper cutting machines, and corner staying machines in paper box factories, is added to the list of employments prohibited to children under sixteen. Laws were also passed affecting the welfare of aliens in connection with the selling of transportation tickets to or from foreign countries, and in connection with private banking, with notaries public, and with private employment bureaus. A Bureau of Industries and Immigration is established within the state department of labor. The bureau has power to investigate the demand for and possible supply of alien labor, to inspect all labor camps, to ascertain the conditions of employment, and to aid in the best placement of such labor. The law limiting the hours of labor of drug clerks to seventy per week (formerly applicable only to cities of one million or more population) is extended to include all cities of the first class. Employment offices for industrial laborers must register with the commissioner of labor, and are subject to his inspection. Ohio.--The governor is directed to appoint a commission of five electors, two representing employers, two laborers, and one an attorney-at-law, to report bills to...
