PHANTOM DANGER (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .One prideful man, one willful woman, three very different countries, a cruel war lord, an evil foreign faction and the most unlikely lovers are what await you in the action packed Phantom Danger. After working two years in a foreign country, security specialist Jack McMain returns home fearful for his family s safety and too ashamed to let anyone know exactly how much danger his careless mistake may have brought to their doorstep. Jack soon discovers a lot has changed since he left, including his own security company. Not one to concern himself with the daily workings of their company, Jack is caught off guard when he discovers his brother has brought on an unexpected business partner and their irrefutable weakest link. Mia Daniel is a phenom when it comes to dealing with people and contract negotiations, but is completely oblivious and unprepared when it comes to protecting herself from the dangers Jack s enemies pose. Providing Mia with the information and training needed to survive would require Jack to admit just how terribly he d failed in Iraq. That is not a low Jack is willing to stoop to, so he instead embarks on a mission to force Mia out of the company and as far away from him as possible. Mia, however, proves to be a formidable opponent, refusing to budge even when Jack preys on her most sensitive weaknesses. With contract renewals looming, a partner sequestered for jury duty and Jack potentially dead in the wilds of Africa, Mia is left to travel alone to Iraq to secure the renewal of their largest contract, inadvertently thrusting Jack into the middle of his most terrifying nightmare. With the clock ticking...
