Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Reminiscences of Charleston An absence of five years from Charleston, a city in which I had resided sixty-five years, must have induced many recollections that merit preservation, if they have left the traces of some that should be forgotten. The propriety of publishing a volume of Reminiscences embracing so long a tract of time, has been suggested by some of my friends. There are many things of which nothing but vague tradition retains the memory, and which are rapidly passing into oblivion. To preserve these waifs that are floating on the stream of time - to rescue these fragments may not be worthy of the pen of the historian, but that they should have a local habitation, and, if possible, a permanent record among the memorabilia of life - will scarcely admit of dispute. In gathering the materials for, and compiling this volume, and giving it the stamp of authenticity, where my memory has failed me, in recollecting dates, I have sought support for my statements in the better recollection of others. As regards facts, I do not require any such adventitious aid. As time recedes from view, it is a law of nature that recollection brightens with the progress of years, while shadows gather over that which is more recent. It was my purpose to have made this volume of Reminiscences comprehensive, if I could have obtained more ample materials, but there was only one file of newspapers in the city, reaching far enough back, and that by the disorder and confusion incident to war, was rendered inaccessible. The Supplement, which will be valuable for reference, has been prepared with great care by the...
