THE DIFFERENCE MAKERS (HARDBACK)

Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2009. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand  This is a dispiriting account of the life of a young Black male (circa WW II) growing up in Mississippi during the height of the Jim Crow era and attending segregated grammar and middle schools designed to miseducate Blacks. The first time he heard the N----- word was from the mouth of an American naval officer. The first White men he saw respecting...
