The confirmation class has this year numbered one hundred and twenty-five. Watertown.--The annual meeting of the First Parish has recently been held. The Report of the Parish Committee shows a very satisfactory condition of the finances, there being a surplus in the treasury after paying running expenses. The Sunday-school is in a better condition than for many years. The Women s Alliance, the Dramatic Club, the Unitarian Club and the Ladies Society for the Relief of the Sick are doing effective work. The report of the committee sums up the situation in the following words: -- The addition to the church property during the last ten years has been very considerable. The Unitarian Building, the renovation of the interior of the church, the recent addition to the church to properly house the new organ, and the conversion of the former unsightly yard into the wellkept lawn are constant witnesses to the devotion and loyalty of the members of the parish to the old place of worship handed down to them by their predecessors. Waverley, Mass.--Easter Sunday afternoon the Lord s Supper was commemorated for the first time in the new Unitarian church, using the communion service presented them by the Third Congregational Church of Cambridge. West Roxbury, Mass.--Easter Sunday was appropriately observed in the First Parish. The pulpit and platform were artistically decorated...
