Excerpt from The Balance Wheel: A Condensed History of the Woman s Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, 1880-1920 The Woman s Home Missionary Society has been as a balance wheel to all races of people under the Stars and Stripes. It has taught: their boys and girls how to read and write and work and worship God. It has taught the Negro girl to cook, sew, make beds, sweep, and set a house in order; the Negro boy to plant and plow and rebuild his cabin. It has shown the Indian how to irrigate the land, and has coaxed him from a Wigwam to a cottage. It has brought bright-eyed Spanish American girls from adobe huts to its spacious boarding-schools. For forty years this potent agency of Americanization has been at work. It has placed Christian social settlements all the way from the Arctic town of Nome to El Paso, Texas, the gateway, to old Mexico; hospitals and dispensaries from Boston to Albuquerque; Industrial Homes from San Juan, Porto Rico, to Tacoma, Washington. Its missions are planted as far west from San Francisco as Maine is east. Boats have edged their way along the northwestern coast laden with wood and glass and stone for its Industrial Homes. Freight cars have travelled from state to state with boxes and barrels and supplies for its orphanages, Homesand schools. The genius of Christian American womanhood is recorded in the history of these forty years. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
