Tru Nobilis Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The 1990s was a time of great technological and social change in America, but it was also a time when monsters stalked the highways and byways of the country as well as, for the first time, the information super highway. If you love true tales of horror more chilling than anything the imagination can conceive then Serial Killers True Crime:13 Serial Killer Murder Stories of the 90s is the book you have been waiting for. Inside you will find a full graphic account of the exploits of monstrous individuals such as: Harvey Miguel Robinson has the dubious honor of being one of the youngest serial killers in American history, being just 18 when he was arrested for the crimes he had committed. Robinson killed two women and a teenager, in addition to trying to kill a child and the woman that would ultimately lead to his capture. Robinson s murder spree was the inspiration for the movie No One Could Protect Her starring Joanna Kerns as intended victim Denise Sam-Cali. Charles Edmund Cullen is a former nurse and the most prolific serial killer in the history of the East Coast, if not in all of American. He has confessed to killing more than 40 people during his time as a nurse, and subsequent interviews have indicated that the actual number could be far, far, greater as he cannot remember names but can remember specifics of the events. All told, experts believe he may have killed as many as 400 people. Keith Hunter Jespersen killed at least 8 women during the early 90s and earned the moniker the Happy Face Killer from the smiley faces that he always included on his letters to the...
