An elven queen's five-hundred year old prophecy warned of the dark days now upon us and the evils that roam the land: Beware the one that has no name. His birth brings great evil to the world. No man not now living, no man not mourned, Buried, and with the angels can defeat him. Timothy Nimblefingers lived a great distance from prophecies. He knew nothing of the world outside his home in Blish except that it was filled with dangers he wanted no part of. He wanted nothing more than to raise a family with his young wife, but when men attacked his homeland, Tim knew he must act to save his friends and family. Wil Shadowdancer was little more than a beardless youth when his parents were murdered by the Nameless One; yet he carried an ancient secret within himself. A secret which could solve the riddle of the prophecy and save the world. The fantasy novel, Bane of the Nameless One, is the story of people doing what they must, no matter the cost to themselves, in order to protect the people and the lands that they love from a nameless, tireless enemy. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
